SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Soviet officials from Peiping were expected to start arriving in Tsingtao in early June for their summer vacations. On 1 June 1950 the Chinese Communist women's organizations in Tsingtao began the hurried preparation of mattresses and blankets.
2. There are many Chinese Communist Navy and Marine Corps personnel in Tsingtao, including a large number of Japanese working as doctors, nurses, and technicians.
3. In early June 1950 landing craft and small American-made vessels were arriving in Tsingtao. Approximately forty American amphibious tanks, which had been in poor condition, had been repaired and taken away to an unknown destination.
